No. 226 G1/55-2 Dt. 8.9.1955.

Sir,

Sub: Establishment - Mangalore Port Trust - Absorption of existing staff - Service condition.

pp 61-64 CF (A) Ref: G.O.Ms.No. 2383 P.W. dated 21.6.1955.

pp 37-39 CF (X) The Mangalore Port Fund was constituted from 1.5.1954 vide G.O.Ms.No. 546 P.W. 16.2.54. The pensionable staff at the Port Office, Mangalore were paid from the Minor Ports Fund upto 30.4.1954 and thereafter from the Mangalore Port Fund with effect from 1.5.1954 on the constitution of the Mangalore Port Fund. Even though the Port Trust Board was formed and the staff is considered to have been absorbed under the Mangalore Port Trust service with effect from 1.10.1954, it is presumed, that under the above circumstances the services of the staff actually paid from the State Minor Ports Fund i.e. upto 30.4.1954 will alone count for purposes of pensionary liability to the State Minor Ports Fund. I request that this presumption may please be confirmed.

Yours faithfully,

(M.L.ADVANI)

2. In G.O.Ms. No. 546, P.W., dated 16th February 1954, the Mangalore Port Fund account was separated from the Minor Ports Fund account from 1st May 1954 and the employees of the Mangalore Port were paid from the Mangalore Port Fund or Mangalore Port Trust Fund, as the case may be, and not from the Minor Ports Fund after that date. The view of the State Port Officer that the services of the staff actually paid from the Minor Ports Fund, that is, upto 30th April 1954 will alone count for purposes of pensionary liability to the State Minor Ports Fund is endorsed.
